THE HARVEST HOME.-The Grange gathering, on Saturday, was another fine affair, of which Troy has had so many this Summer. Farmers came pouring in from direction, and excursion trains came from St. Joe and Atchison. The crowd was about as large as those of the 24th of June and 4th of July.

Shortly before noon, a procession was formed, and aded by the Troy Baad, marched around the Square This seemed to be a movement not provided for, and was not conducted very systematically.

After the pic-nic dinner, the intellectual part of the ogramme began. There was singing by a choir of la dies, and a number of speeches were made. Among the speakers, were G. W. Glick, W. D. Rippey, Mr. Dutton The speakers were generally positive in their declarations that the Grange was independent of politics. This is very gratifying, for as long as designing men were permitted to make a political machine of it, the Grange necessarily incurred the opposition of political parties. The deceased was the father of the editor of the Chief. He was born September 19th, 1800, in Anderson County. East Tennessee. His father, Frederick Miller, was a na tive of Rockingham County, Virginia, and served in the Revolutionary War, under Washington, participating in the siege of Yorktown, and being present at the surrender of Cornwallis. A few years after the close of the Rev olution, he emigrated to East Tennessee, where he resid ed until 1803, when, having heard much of the wonderful untry in the North-Western Territory, north of the Ohio River, where slavery was prohibited, he emigrates rated Miami Valley. In March, 1804, he permanently located on the banks of Twin Creek, near the present town of West Alexandria, in Proble County, being among the first pioneers of that County.

The subject of this sketch had resided continuously in that neighborhood from the year 1804, a period of more than 72 years, except a short temporary residence at La-fayette, Indiana, in 1830-31. He and an older sister who till survives, were perhaps the oldest residents of the county, up to the time of his death. At an early age, he sarned the trades of carpenter and cabinet maker, be oming remarkably proficient in both, and labored con. antly at one or the other of them, until he was disabled by age and disease, a few months since. The citizens of the several Counties of Atchison, Doniphan, Brown, and Nemuha compaing the Second Judicial District of the State of Karsas, in mass conven tien assembled to consider the question of selecting a candidate for District Judge to be vided for at the ensuing election, and being of both pollical parties, do hereby recognize and affirm the following cardinal principles to recovery in a care district.

distate for District Judge, to be vided for at the ensuing election, and being of both political parties, do hereby recognize and affirm the following cardinal principles to govern us in our action.

1st. That we deem the judicial office wholly non-political in its character, and that the selection of a cannidate therefore should be made wholly with regard to the fitness, ability and learning of the person to be selected, and wholly independent of political or personal consideration. That the office should be massiletted, and that the sincombent should be placed in office by the people of his district without pledges, promises, or solicitations on his part, to the end that justice may be impartially administered, and the decisions made from the heach, challenge the confidence and respect of the communities in which they are made, and of the parties litigant themselves. That it is only in this way that respect for law can be maintained, and disorder and misrale prevented. That a Judge upon the bench should be so placed there by the people, that he may act independently, decide without fear or favor, and know in his judicial capacity no friend and no enemy, no party, and no creed.

2st. That we regard as most unfortunate, the nomination and election of any candidate who procures his place after and through a bitter personal and surparters, and with friends to reward and enemies to punish in and through his office after he shall have secured it. Surely such a person can be a safe and suitable representative of your judicial system can not minimal maintain of the nomination of our judicial system can not ensure the recognize and deprecate the fact that such is the presentative of your judicial system can not moved thereby, without unkindness or malice toward any one, as a sacred duty we owe ourselves and the citizens of this District, to select and place in nomination another, and is more unitable candidate for the office referred to.

Many of our farmers are plowing, and getting the ground ready for putting in fall wheat. We attended the Convention at Hiawatha, last week, add must give it as our opinion that we never, in all our life, saw such unjust rulings by any chairman; and the gag that was put in force deserved to be rated with the lowest contempt. We think the Doniphan County delegation, with those from Atchison, who left that Conven tion, did right, and that the people of this County should support David Martin for Judge. undred against Mr. Hubbard. wrote a certain communication that was published in the Wathena Reporter of week before last, said communica-tion reflecting to some extent on Mr. Leland and Mr. Miller, of Troy, and Mr. Fred. Harpster, of this place, as well as Mr. A. Perry, of Troy, we wish to deny writing it in toto. We never wrote a communication to that paper in our life, except one dated. August 12, asking the editor of that paper some questions concerning this same matter. We never knew anything about such a letter being written, until our attention was called to it by a citizen of this place, on Saturday, August 5th, some tim evening of that day. We further say, that the majority our views, and we are positive that some of the matters referred to in that communication were untrue-at least we never knew anything about Mr. Miller either writing talking to any one in Wolf River Township, about del egates to either of the Conventions, and did not under stand that Mr. Leland cared particularly about this District. He may have had his preference, but did not at tempt, to our knowledge, to dictate. In conclusion, we wish to say to those who are so anxious to find fault, and lay it onto us, that it would always be well to ascertain the facts. In this we have no reference to the editor of the Chief, but to those who informed him of it, and represented to him that we wrote the letter referred to. We have no desire to get into a quarrel, but since it is reported that we were the author of that communication, we deemed it best to simply say we were not. Allow us as the writer, and the one who has furnished the items from this place for nearly three years, to subscribe himself.

An Indiana man came through here afoot, after a truant rife, two children, span of mules and wagon; also his wife's paramour. Said the man had stole the nonles and wagon, taken his wiie, and emigrated westward. The woman' husband started afoot ten days after they left, and at the St. Joe bridge was in twenty-four hours of them. they passed through Doniphan, they were only twenty hours ahead; thought he would overhaul them in two days more. His wife was visiting when she left with the on. The husband did not care for anything but the nules, wagon, and two children.

We went to Troy, Saturday. A big day for Granger morrats, and everybody. The Granger feast was a big thing. We turned Granger about dinner time. Dined with Mr. John Tracy and lady, in company with Mr. Chambers and lady. Of course all the little Grangers sere squatted around. It was a feast, and we feasted Missouri will do for us to be born in, but let us live it Kansas. We called on the veteran Chieftain, and found him busy with scissors in hand, quill behind his ears. (which, by the way, are not very small), clipping, writing and looking over the delinquent subscription list. While waiting for the train, to go home, we called on F. M. Tracy, of the "Banner Mills." He makes nice flour and sells at Granger prices.

Last Sunday was a field day for Doniphan. A large elegation from the neighboring city of Atchison, paid a visit to the celebrated gardens of Geo. Brenner, Esq., accompanied by the Atchison Cornet Band, in full costume. The hand is a superior one, and discourses strains of sweetest music. The members of the hand certainly presented a handsome appearance. It was truly a gala ocasien to our Teutonic fellow-citizens, and also to many of the hybrid American race who were present. All ap peared to have enjoyed themselves hugely. No polities; but good, old-fashioned social fun. Music, "Die Faderand," interspersed by many of the American national airs, was wafted upon the breeze. JONATHAN.

The Democratic Judicial Convention met in Troy, Tuesday. We have not been furnished with the official proceedings; but can say that the Convention was duly anized, committees appointed, &c., and then, having ed an invitation from a Republican delega meet with them in an independent mass meeting for the nomination of a Judge, adjourned sine die. The proceedings of the meeting which followed, we publish elsewhere. A very pleasant gathering was that at Col. F. M.
